CHICAGO (November 16, 2021) – Epiphany Center for the Arts today announced that Funkadesi, Chicago’s 10-time, award-winning intercultural band, will host its “25th Anniversary Extravaganza” on Friday, December 3 at 7:00 p.m. in the landmark venue’s Epiphany Hall.

The evening will begin with a documentary short produced by filmmaker Sree Nallamothe and Funkadesi, followed by a Q&A with the band and pre-concert set by DJ Warp. The evening will also feature an after-party set by DJ Redlox and food by Bombay Wraps.

Named “Best World Music Group” by the Chicago Reader and “Most Outstanding Band” by the Chicago Music Awards, Funkadesi blends Indian music – bhangra, Bollywood, Indian folk – with reggae, funk and Afro-Caribbean grooves. The Chicago-based band proudly represents the diverse multi-ethnic communities within the city, with a motto that states: “One family, many children ... insisting we all belong.”

“I’m thrilled that we’ve stuck it out this long as an independent Chicago band,” said Rahul Sharma, Funkadesi’s founder and bassist / sitarist. “We’re a family. Quite simply, we love to play music, we love to be together in front of appreciative fans, and we continue to feed off each other’s energy after all these years. We’re beyond excited to hold this grand celebration to commemorate our 25th anniversary at Epiphany Center for the Arts.”

“Epiphany’s mission is about ‘Bringing Chicago Together for the Good of Art, Entertainment and Events,’” said David Chase, co-founder, Epiphany Center for the Arts. “Funkadesi believes in bringing the community together as well, and has been uniting audiences for 25 years through its blend of diverse cultures, inventive sounds, and distinctive rhythms. We hope you’ll join us for what promises to be an unforgettable night with one of Chicago’s most unique and joyful bands.”
